

Valley Dirtbags, Inc, Refund Policy

1. No Refunds

All payments made to Valley Dirtbags, Inc. are non-refundable, except as expressly provided in this policy. By registering for a program, accepting a roster position, or submitting payment, players and their families acknowledge and agree to the terms outlined below.

2. Applicability

Refunds will not be issued for any reason, including, but not limited to, the following:

- A player voluntarily leaving a team or program.
- A player being dismissed due to conduct, disciplinary issues, or violations of organizational policies.
- Team changes, restructuring, or dissolution.
- Injury, illness, or any other circumstance preventing participation.
- Changes to schedules, coaching staff, or program structure.
- Missed practices, games, tournaments, or other team activities.
- Relocation or other personal or family circumstances.
- Tournament, event, or travel changes, postponements, or cancellations.
- Any other circumstances that affect a player's participation or ability to fulfill their commitment to the program.

3. Credits and Transfers

Valley Dirtbags, Inc. may, at its sole discretion, offer a credit toward future participation or authorize an internal transfer of fees. Such accommodations are not guaranteed and do not constitute a refund. All decisions regarding credits or internal transfers must be reviewed and approved by the President.

4. Team Dissolution

In the event a team operating under Valley Dirtbags, Inc. dissolves, any remaining net funds associated with that team shall be transferred to Valley Dirtbags, Inc. and handled in accordance with the organization's governing documents and applicable laws.

5. Acknowledgment and Acceptance

Participation in any Valley Dirtbags, Inc. program, acceptance of a roster position, or submission of payment constitutes acknowledgment and acceptance of this Refund Policy. Players and their families are responsible for reviewing and understanding this policy before making a financial commitment to the organization.
